

Mr. Renzo Bravo Calambrogio

Independent, Non-Executive

Mr. Renzo Bravo Calambrogio brings over 20 years of international experience in the logistics sector, with deep expertise in strategy, marketing, and operations across Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and India.

He currently serves as Logistics Executive Director – Portfolio Management at ADQ, where he oversees the performance of logistics investments and drives both organic growth and strategic acquisitions to expand ADQ's global footprint.

Prior to ADQ, Mr. Calambrogio held senior leadership roles at UPS, including Strategy Vice President for Emerging Markets, where he was instrumental in establishing a joint venture in India and forging key partnerships with e-commerce players across Africa, enhancing UPS's regional capabilities and service offerings.

From 2014 to 2018, he was Marketing Vice President for UPS in India, Subcontinent, Middle East, and Africa, where he designed and executed an asset-light expansion strategy that doubled the business within four years. Earlier, as Strategy Director for the Europe Region, he managed market and commercial synergy assessments for major initiatives, including the potential integration of UPS and TNT.
