

Iman Alqasim

Board Member

MBA from the University of Bath

Ms. Alqasim is an accomplished Human Resources leader and change agent with over 20 years of experience in organizational transformation across various industries such as Finance, Energy, Automotive and Retail. She has a deep understanding of the changing needs of human capital and talent management, along with a proven track record of agility and strategic oversight in the most challenging business and economic conditions.

She is currently the Executive Vice President – Human Capital at Emirates Global Aluminum (EGA), where she is responsible for leading the Talent agenda on all matters, including executive compensation, manpower cost optimization and succession planning.

In addition to her current role at EGA, Ms. Alqasim serves as a Board and Committee Member of various leading companies including TAQA, Aramex and E7 (formerly, UPP).

Prior to joining EGA, Ms. Alqasim served as Group HR Director at ENOC, where she led the People and Organization agenda for over 10,000 employees. Before this, she was the Executive Director at Human Capital with Mubadala Investment Company (MIC), leading all People and Organization matters. Prior to Mubadala, Ms. Alqasim served as Deputy Vice President of Human Resources at Dolphin Energy.

She holds an MBA from the University of Bath and was granted the honorary Sheikh Rashid Award for outstanding education achievement.